President congratulates France's President-Elect

President Abdulla Yameen Abdul Gayoom has sent a congratulatory message to the President-Elect of the French Republic, His Excellency Emmanuel Jean-Michel Frédéric Macron.

The President's message reads as follows:

“I wish to offer my congratulations on your election as the next President of the French Republic. I wish you success in your new challenging assignment.”

“The Maldives and France enjoy long standing cordial relations and 20th May will mark the 46th anniversary of the establishment of diplomatic relations between our two countries. It is my hope that this relation would continue to flourish during your term in office, especially on the advancement of global interests common to our countries, such as climate change and counter-terrorism.”

“Let me also take this opportunity to convey my best wishes for your good health and well-being and the assurances of my highest consideration.”
