President inquires on state of Addu following tornado

President Abdulla Yameen Abdul Gayoom inquired about the wellbeing of Addu and its residents following the tornado that hit Hithadhoo last evening. The Mayor of Addu city, on a phone call with the President's Office, clarified the city's current state and of those affected.

“I am deeply saddened to learn of this incident and its effects on the lives and livelihoods of the residents of Hithadhoo. I will be monitoring the situation closely and hope to work towards alleviating any difficulties caused by this tragic event in the swiftest manner possible,” the President said.
